In very few cases I found such efficiency in the organization, for that reason we should thank Adriana Almada and her team.

The papers have generally an excellent level and the choice of Tania Bruguera to close the 44th AICA Congress was a brilliant idea.

Also the conceptual exchange between the participants was one of the highlights of this meeting.

In brief, participate in the 44th AICA Congress -granted by the Getty Foundation- was really an excellent experience for me.
